

Carol singers bring festive feel to College

There was a festive feel to Havering Sixth Form College when staff and students gave up their time to sing and play Christmas carols in the Atrium.

The musicians and singers, led by music teacher Jonathan Venner, created a really Christmassy atmosphere as all the favourite traditional carols could be heard along the College corridors.

A total of £60 was collected in donations for St Francis Hospice.