

HAVERING STUDENT CAPTAINS ENGLISH SCHOOLS' TEAM!

English schools will face their French counterparts for the first time in twelve years at Wembley stadium this Saturday (13th June) and Havering Sixth Form College student Jamie Libby will be their Captain!

Jamie (18) who lives in Romford, has attended the College for two years, joining in 2007 when he left Royal Liberty School. He is studying for a BTEC National Certificate in Sport & Development as well as A Levels in Biology and PE. Jamie has recently played in a home nations tournament (they were joint winners), scoring in a 3-0 victory over Wales. He went on a Spanish training camp to Villarreal in Feb and went on tour to USA (Atlanta) in March.

Jamie also plays for Redbridge Football Club and would like to be a professional footballer. He is also considering taking up a scholarship in the USA which would start in 2010.

As well as playing football and studying at College, Jamie likes music and names Friends and Soccer AM as his favourite TV shows. His footballing hero is John Terry.

Catch the match live on Setanta Sports this Saturday.
