What are the Bursary and Free School Meals Funds?

The 16 to 19 Bursary and Free School Meals Fund aims to provide financial support for economically or socially disadvantaged young people so that they may overcome financial barriers that threaten their participation in education. There are two types of 16 to 19 Bursaries: A Vulnerable Bursary & a Discretionary Bursary/Free School Meals.

To be eligible for a Bursary & Free School Meals students must:

- Be under 19 years old on 31st August 2018
(Students aged 19 or over are only eligible to receive a Discretionary Bursary if they are continuing on a study programme they began aged 16 to 18 or have an Education, Health and Care Plan (EHCP). Students aged 19 or over are not eligible for a Vulnerable Bursary).
- Meet the residency criteria

Successful applicants will receive:

- Financial support paid directly into the student's own bank account
- The college deposit & compulsory course costs will be paid for
- Free School Meals provided
- Students enrolled on the following courses can get a subsidy towards the cost of: Maths – a calculator & Photography – a camera

Which type of Bursary should I apply for?

Discretionary Bursary/Free School Meals, students can apply if:

- You live with Parents/Guardians whose annual earnings are less than £19,000 and they are in receipt of means tested benefits.

You should apply using form DCB/FSM

Vulnerable Bursary, students can apply if they are:

- In Care or a Care Leaver
- In receipt of Income Support/ Universal Credit & financially supporting themselves
- In receipt of Employment Support Allowance or Universal Credit and Disability Living Allowance or Personal Independence Payments in their own right

You should apply using form G12

How do I apply? Complete and sign the relevant application form and return with the supporting documentation as requested to Finance Services. Supporting documentation will be returned.

How long will the assessment take? We aim to deal with applications as fast as possible but due to the high volumes of applications received at the beginning of the College year it can take up to 14 days. Please be patient.

How will I know if my application is successful? You will be contacted via your College e-mail account and advised of the outcome of your application. You will be asked to collect your supporting documents. Vulnerable Bursary applicants may also be invited to have a chat with the College Safe Guarding Officer to discuss their situation to ensure they receive the correct support.

If my application is successful when will I receive support? Details of the support you will receive and how you will receive it will be communicated to you by College email. The first payment is usually in October & further payments are usually received at the beginning of each half term.

If my application is unsuccessful is there an appeals procedure? Unsuccessful applicants will be advised by College email and given details of the appeals procedure.

Will my supporting documents be returned to me? All supporting documents can be collected from Finance Services once your application has been assessed.

If you have any queries about the Bursary, please speak to one of the Finance Team in Finance Services or on 01708 514424 or bursary@haverling-sfc.ac.uk
